

“Going Home to the Great Homecoming”

(John 14:1-6)

Introduction:

1. This morning we get a small glimpse of what Heaven will be like.
2. Today is a great day of fellowship with members past and a day of encouragement to our spiritual family.

I. Where is our Home?

- A. “Home is where the heart is.”
- B. (Matthew 6:19-21)
 1. Is our Heart set on the above? (Colossians 3:2)
- C. (Psalms 119:9-11, 33-40, 112)
- D. Home is where you will lay your head down (2 Timothy 4:6-8).

II. Here at our Homecoming?

- A. Each one of us is different, but we have the same goals.
 1. (1 Corinthians 9:24-25)
- B. Each one of us press on (Philippians 3:12-14).
- C. Each one of us are fighting (1 Timothy 6:11-16).
- D. Those Christians who have passed on, we will see (2 Samuel 12:23).
 1. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)

III. Going Home to the Great Homecoming

- A. Christ has gone to prepare us a home (John 14:1-6).
 1. There is a place reserved for us (1 Peter 1:3-4).
 2. Christ will receive us to Him (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18).
 3. Jesus mentions the way to get there (John 14:6; Acts 4:12).
- B. What is Heaven?
 1. It is the place of eternal bliss.
 2. The place of joy (Luke 15:7,10).
 3. The place of rest (Revelation 14:13).
 4. The place of peace (Luke 16:19-25).
 5. The place of righteousness (2 Peter 3:13).
 6. The place of glory (Romans 8:18).
 7. The place of God (Revelation 21:3-4).

Conclusion:

1. Today is a day of remembering and a day of encouragement.
2. At the end of this physical life, will you have a great homecoming?
3. As we leave here today, let us say, “Good Night!”
